

Abandoned Cars

Abandoned cars are not allowed in the borough either on the street or on private property. If your car does not have a current registration or inspection, it is considered abandoned. The only exceptions are for cars in the process of being repaired and classic cars stored in a fully enclosed building.