

Contractor License

Contractors must register with the borough prior to performing any work in Conshohocken. The process verifies that the contractor has liability insurance and workmen's compensation insurance, if required.