

Trees

Residents are responsible for the maintenance of trees on their property. Every owner of a tree that overhangs a street or right-of-way within the borough must prune the branches, so the tree does not severely obstruct light from a street lamp or the view at an intersection. Also, a tree branch cannot cover any part of a street or traffic sign. Tree branches must also be at least thirteen feet above the street and at least nine feet above sidewalks.